Have you ever:
• questioned a patient’s fitness to drive?
• wondered how decisions are made by the SGI Medical Review Unit?
• considered your responsibility as a practitioner to report to SGI?
• thought about what adaptive driving equipment options are available?

Course Components:
1. Introductory Session (on location)
   Regina - September 20 • 6:00 pm-7:30 pm OR
   Saskatoon - September 21 • 6:00 pm-7:30 pm
2. Online Modules
   September 22 - November 6, 2016
3. Wrap-Up Session (on location)
   Regina - November 7 • 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm OR
   Saskatoon - November 8 • 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm

Learn the medical-legal requirements to effectively evaluate and report medically at-risk drivers

Course Participants:
Physicians and Allied Health Professionals

Fee: $100 + GST

Register by September 15, 2016:
www.usask.ca/cmelearning

This course meets the certification criteria of the College of Family Physicians of Canada and the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. It has been certified by The Division of Continuing Medical Education, College of Medicine, University of Saskatchewan for up to 7 Mainpro+ credits, or MOC program (Section 1) credit hours.

For more information:
Pam Seib - 306 966 7787 or pam.seib@usask.ca

This course was supported in part by an educational grant from SGI